

Public Policy & Administration

Martin School of Public Policy & Administration

The Martin School of Public Policy and Administration, a research, academic and service unit of the Graduate School, offers the Ph.D. in Public Policy and Administration, the Master in Public Administration (MPA), the Master in Public Policy (MPP) degrees and the online Master of Public Financial Management. The Ph.D. in Public Policy and Administration is designed to prepare students for positions with academic institutions or policy think tanks. The MPA is a 40-credit hour program designed for those seeking careers in the public, non-profit, and private sectors. The MPP is a 37-hour program designed to prepare individuals for careers as professional policy analysts in government and non-profit organizations. The MPFM is a 36 credit-hour degree preparing students to work in the finance departments of government and nonprofit organizations. The interdisciplinary members of the faculty have primary or joint appointments in the Martin School and in one of the academic departments of the College of Business and Economics, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Pharmacy, the College of Education, or the College of Agriculture, Food and environment.

Doctor of Philosophy

The curriculum of the Ph.D. program provides knowledge of the principles of organizational behavior, an understanding of the public policy process and policy issues, and an ability to analyze policy and administrative problems through research and analytical methods.

Admission Requirements

The University of Kentucky uses the Hobson's ApplyYourself system. All documents must be submitted online: <http://gradschool.uky.edu/welcome-university-kentucky>. Be prepared to upload:

1. A one to three page statement explaining why you wish to pursue a Ph.D. degree.
2. A resume or CV
3. An official or unofficial transcript from each post-secondary institution that you have attended.
4. The e-mail addresses of at least three individuals who have agreed to write a recommendation letter on your behalf. Ideally, at least two letters are from academic references.
5. A writing sample, while optional, is encouraged.
6. You will enter your GRE or GMAT scores in the Graduate School application but will also need to submit official scores from ETS.

Entering students are expected to have at least a 3.0 grade point average in undergraduate work (on a 4.0 scale), and a 3.5 in all graduate level work. The Martin School does not have "cut-off" scores when it comes to the GRE (or other accepted admissions exam) and considers all aspects of students' records, including evidence of improving performance during students' academic careers. The final selection of students for admission will be subject to the discretion of the director of Graduate Studies based on the advice of the admissions committee of the Ph.D. program. Competitive admission is based on a consideration of the documents listed above.

Pre-Requisites and Exemptions; Many incoming students will hold a master's degree in public administration or public policy. Other students with master's degrees in such areas as political science, economics, agricultural economics or business administration will be evaluated with respect to their background in public administration. All students are expected to have taken four University of Kentucky courses: PA 652 (Public Policy Economics), PA 631 (Public Financial Management), PA 642

(Public Organizational Theory and Behavior), and PA 651 (The Policy Process), or their equivalents from a NASPAA accredited program or their equivalents. Students who have not fulfilled these class requirements will do so before taking the relevant Ph.D. core classes. All students are also expected to have a strong background in research methodology and will need to take calculus before beginning the Ph.D. classes.

Degree Requirements

Students are required to take 42 hours of graduate course work beyond the master's degree or its equivalent. The program of study includes 15 credit hours of core courses, 15 credit hours in the area of concentration, 3 credit hours of theory related to and supporting the student's area of concentration, and 9 credit hours of research methodology courses. In addition to course work, students complete two examinations and a dissertation. The dissertation involves research on a public management or public policy issue.

Core Courses

- PA 731 Fiscal and Budgetary Policy (3)
- PA 742 Theory of Public Organizations (3)
- PA 750 Introduction to Economics of Public Policy (3)
- PA 751 Public Policy Formulation (3)
