Drs. Ferrigno and Bjork from the Department of Educational Leadership Studies were invited to attend Council to present the background on a series of new courses developed in their department. These leadership courses are predominantly modules of one credit on varying topics, and are designed for use by all other master's degree programs in the College of Education. The leadership modules have been mandated by the Education Professional Standards Board of Kentucky, and are to be instituted by December 31, 2010.

The content of all courses were approved. The specific forms and prefix to be used will be worked out among the Registrar, Dr. Ferrigno, and the Dean, and to be forwarded to Senate Council.

Dr. Berry presented and made the motion to approve the program change in Master of Education, Secondary Education. The motion was seconded by Dr. Dutch and unanimously approved.

Dr. Dutch presented and made the motion to approve the new course PHS 632. The motion was seconded by Dr. Berry and unanimously approved.
