

A student may withdraw from a class after the course's withdrawal deadline upon approval by the Dean of the Graduate School of a petition certifying urgent non-academic reasons including but not limited to 1) injury or illness of the student 2) serious personal or family problems 3) serious financial difficulties. Before acting on such a petition, the Dean will consult with the instructor of the class. If such a petition is approved by the Dean, s/he shall inform in writing the instructor of the class of the action taken, and the student shall be assigned a grade of "W". A student must inform their Director of Graduate Studies about this form submission.
