The UK Graduate School's Office of Graduate Student Professional Enhancement \(GSPE\) is excited to announce a brand new event for the Spring 2023 semester titled GradScholar: A Doctoral Re-Orientation. Intended for graduate students who have recently entered the candidacy stage of their doctoral degree, or those who are close to completing their qualifying/comprehensive exams, GradScholar will assist doctoral candidates in navigating the difficult transition from graduate student to independent scholar.

- Date/Time: Friday, March 31, 2023, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. EST
- Location: TBD
- Eligibility Requirement: Doctoral students who have completed, or will complete, their qualifying/comprehensive exam between May 2022 and May 2023.

Beyond the Professoriate Webinar - Get the Right PhD Job Search Strategy (01/25)

Are you agonizing about this question: “Do I stay in academia or leave?”

PhDs and postdocs have the skills to succeed wherever they want to work. But all too often, as they near the end of a PhD program or postdoc position, they think that they don't have many options. But you DO have options! You just need to be reminded that you do, and you need the right job search strategy.

That's why Beyond Prof's Jan. 25th live webinar is entitled “What Can I Do With My PhD?” In this webinar, our team will demystify job-searching-as-a-PhD and demonstrate how the resources on our PhD Career Training Platform support PhDs and postdocs in any kind of job search—academic or non-academic—that they want to undertake.

After attending this presentation, you will be able to:

- Determine which job searching path is right for you: academic or non-academic
- Challenge misconceptions you may have that are blocking you from finding rewarding, meaningful work outside the academy
- Reduce overwhelm by breaking both academic and non-academic job searches down into four discrete stages
- Find resources on our platform that will help you move forward in your job search, no matter where you're looking for work or what stage of the process you might be in.

This webinar will take place Wed, Jan. 25th at noon EST, on Zoom.

It is free to attend for all Beyond the Professoriate members.

Beyond the Professoriate Webinar - On-Campus Academic Job Interviews (02/01)

February 1st, 2023: 12:00-12:30 pm ET

It's the time of year in the academic job market cycle when on-campus interviews are taking place. Maybe you're waiting to hear back after having completed some screening interviews. Or maybe you've already booked your on-campus interview dates, and you're wondering what to expect.

Join the Beyond the Professoriate team to learn how best to approach an on-campus interview and how to effectively pitch yourself as the candidate for the role.

This virtual workshop is uniquely designed for doctoral students, PhDs, and postdocs from all academic disciplines who are wondering:

- What do I need to prepare for my on-campus interview?
- How can I request information from an institution to prepare properly?
- What kinds of questions will the hiring committee ask me?
- How can I adapt to unexpected situations that might arise in an interview?

This webinar is sponsored by the Global Higher Education division of ETS®.

Beyond the Professoriate Webinar - How to Market Your PhD (02/15)

February 15th, 2023: 12:00-12:30 pm ET

As a grad student or postdoc, you might be wondering what you can do with your PhD. Where can you apply your skills and experience outside of academia in a meaningful and rewarding way? And how can you communicate your value to potential employers?

Join the Beyond the Professoriate team to learn how to identify your most marketable skills, and communicate those skills to employers in industry.

This virtual workshop is uniquely designed for doctoral students, PhDs, and postdocs from all academic disciplines who are wondering:

- How do I find a nonacademic career path where I can use my skills and experience?
- What skills do I have that employers are looking for in job candidates?
- How do I articulate the value that I bring to industry positions?

This webinar is sponsored by the Global Higher Education division of ETS®.

Anthropology Distinguished Lecture Series with Dr. Jonathan Berthard (02/23)

Anthropology Graduate Student Association presents
20th Annual Distinguished Lecturer Series

Community-Based Bioarchaeology: An Example from Transylvania

with Jonathan Bethard, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Biological Anthropology, University of South Florida

Thursday, February 23, 2023

4:30 pm - William T. Young Library

UK Athletics Association Auditorium

Free admission followed by a free catered reception

Dr. Jonathan Bethard (Ph.D.) is an associate professor of biological anthropology at the University of South Florida and a diplomate of the American Board of Forensic Anthropology. He is the project director of the ArchaeoTek Research Center and the head of the ArchaeoTek's Osteology laboratory.

Dr. Bethard's osteology and bioarchaeology field school in Odorheiu Secuiesc, Romania, has given students throughout the years the in-depth knowledge of human skeletal anatomy and dentition and skills to obtain demographic data from the archaeological skeletal populations essential to improving our understanding of life in the past. His lecture is based on his experience of conducting applied bioarchaeological work in Romania and working with the local community in maintaining their connection to their past, ancestors, and cultural heritage.

Graduate School Reminders & Guidance

Thesis/Non-Thesis Options (Master's Degree)

The Graduate Faculty authorizes graduate programs to satisfy requirements for the master's degree by either of two options, thesis (Plan A) or non-thesis, (Plan B). Both options require a minimum of 30 credit hours.

The thesis option (Plan A) requires a minimum of 24 hours of course work plus a thesis, which is produced under the direction of a full or associate member of the Graduate Faculty. While working on the thesis, master's candidates should register for 6 credits of XXX-768 (Residence Credit for Master's Degree) in the appropriate department. After meeting coursework and 768 requirements, Plan A master's degree candidates who are in residence and receiving financial support from the University and/or utilizing University resources while working on the thesis must be enrolled in their departments XXX-768 or XXX-748 (Master's Thesis Research; 0 credit hours) each semester through to the defense. Registration in 748 guarantees that a student is in full-time status for the purposes of student financial aid and loan deferments. The DGS must certify that the student is working at least halftime (i.e., 20 hours per week) on the thesis. Registration in 748 is limited to a maximum of six semesters (not counting the summer semester).

The Graduate School processes all 748 registrations. The non-thesis option (Plan B) requires six or more graduate credit hours of course work in lieu of a thesis.

Beyond the Professoriate Quick Tips: Video Interviews

Given the now-widespread use of video conferencing, it's not unusual for job interviews to take place online these days, via Zoom or Teams or some other platform. On the academic job market, first-round interviews are increasingly done via video conferencing, and many non-academic jobs use the format as well.

So here are some tips for creating a good impression of yourself on a video interview:

- Elevate your webcam so that it's looking at you straight on (and not shooting you from underneath, an angle that looks flattering on exactly no one).
- Think about lighting! You want to be illuminated from the front and/or the side, not from behind (which will turn you into a shadow).
- Dress like yourself, but the most professional version of yourself (think about your favorite politician: they convey who they are while also navigating professional dress codes).
- And yes, dress the lower half of your body as well! Something unexpected might happen, causing you to need to stand, and no one needs to see your pajamas (no matter how comfortable they might be)! Plus, fully dressing the part will help you come off like you deserve the part.
- Double- and triple-check your tech. Do a test call with a friend or partner. Make sure you know how to use the particular video conferencing platform your interview will take place on, and make sure automatic updates on your computer are turned off.

Campus-Wide Initiatives

Call for Participants: FeMALE Mentorship Survey

FeMALE MENTORSHIP SURVEY

University of Kentucky is interested in understanding the impact of female mentorship on trainees in the health care and science professions.

NSF - Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education Organizational Postdoctoral Research Fellowships (STEM Ed OPRF)

(04/28)

Description: The Directorate for STEM Education (EDU) STEM Education Postdoctoral Research Fellowships (STEM Ed PRF) Program funds postdoctoral fellowship projects designed to enhance the research knowledge, skills, and practices of STEM Education research by recent doctoral graduates in STEM, STEM Education, Education, and related disciplines. This solicitation supports organizational postdoctoral fellowship projects; a companion solicitation (STEM Ed IPRF) supports individual postdoctoral fellowship awards. The Program is designed to broaden the pool of researchers who can advance knowledge regarding STEM learning and learning environments, broadening participation in STEM fields, and STEM workforce development. Principal Investigators who are women, veterans, persons with disabilities, and from groups underrepresented in STEM, or who have attended community colleges and minority-serving institutions (e.g. Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Tribal Colleges and Universities, Hispanic Serving Institutions, Alaska Native Serving Institutions, and Hawaiian Native and Pacific Islander Serving Institutions) are especially encouraged to apply.

STEM Ed OPRF awards provide support to organizations as they develop a STEM education postdoctoral research fellowship project and support a cohort of fellows. The program should enable fellows to engage in ongoing research, to develop independent research, and to implement an independent professional development plan under the guidance of a sponsoring researcher. Fellows are expected to devote themselves full time to the fellowship activities for the duration of the fellowship.

Announcement Number: NSF 23-545

NSF - Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education Individual Postdoctoral Research Fellowships (STEM Ed IPRF) (04/11)

Description: The STEM Ed PRF Program supports professional development activities of postdoctoral fellows in settings that will position them for careers as STEM education research scholars. Fellowship awards will facilitate the acquisition of expertise in STEM education research design and methods and the implementation of an individual development plan under the direction of a sponsoring researcher from a host organization.

The STEM Ed PRF Program encourages proposals that support postdoctoral experiences for those holding doctorates in STEM Education (e.g., Mathematics Education, Science Education), STEM, Education, and related disciplines who have career interests in STEM education research.

Summer Internships with NASA (03/01)

Summer internship opportunities are currently available with NASA. Interested students should begin their search at intern.nasa.gov, then complete a profile in the NASA STEM Gateway and browse the internship listings for opportunities of interest.

KY Space Grant Consortium provides stipend support for a limited number of Kentucky students who are accepted for NASA internships. Students are welcome to notify NASA KY that they have completed their NASA profile and applications by emailing nasa@uky.edu.

Application Deadline March 1, 2023

NASA EPSCoR ISS PROGRAM (02/15)

NASA KY RFP-23-002: NASA EPSCoR ISS FY2023

NASA EPSCoR is seeking proposals for an ISS Flight Opportunity available to EPSCoR jurisdictions. This opportunity is for projects that have matured and/or can be flight-ready within limited time and funding constraints.

Researchers at any Kentucky academic institution are invited to submit white papers of no more than three pages. Please see RFP-23-002 on our website (linked above) for full details.

Each EPSCoR jurisdiction is limited to one proposal to the national solicitation. The NASA Kentucky EPSCoR program will review submitted white papers and select the most competitive project as Kentucky's candidate. Researchers should contact NASA KY with any questions.

White papers due Wednesday, February 15, 2023.

NASA Research Infrastructure Improvement (RII) TRACK-4: EPSCoR Research Fellows

NSF EPSCoR has released the Track-4 solicitation which provides support to further develop individual research potential of assistant or associate professors through collaborative activities with private, governmental, commercial, non-profit or academic research centers. Any research topic supported by NSF is eligible for consideration.

NASA EPSCoR provides funding for Track-4 researchers in two ways:

- NASA Sub-track: Available to limited institutional types, including MSI and PUI (primarily undergraduate institutions)
- NSF Sub-track: Researchers at R1 or non-PUI institutions who collaborate with NASA may be supported by NASA EPSCoR under this sub-track

Researchers who are interested in NASA collaboration can contact NASA KY at nasa@uky.edu for more information. Please see the NSF solicitation for full details:

Each institution may submit 4 proposals per track if eligible.

NASA KY Space Grant Programs

The NASA KY Space Grant Consortium (KYSGC) will soon release its annual call for in-state proposals to receive NASA funding. Affiliates of KYSGC and their partners are eligible to apply.

KYSGC programs provide support for graduate and undergraduate student research, undergraduate team projects, research initiation for faculty, and mini-grants that can support a variety of projects in higher education, pre-college outreach or informal educational settings.

Please see the KYSGC page at nasa.engr.uky.edu/space-grant for more information.

This solicitation will be open in late January 2023.

On behalf of the partners of the Innovative Doctoral Courses for Sustainability (IDOCOS) project, it is our pleasure to invite PhD students to enroll the online course. The self-study course Digital Transformation is for doctoral students.

The main objective of the course is to provide opportunities for participants to learn and explore how digitalization can contribute to the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals – to trigger transformation for sustainable development. Learn more about the course here.

This course is for doctoral students who wish to learn more about digital transformation and how digitalization can contribute to the implementation of the UN sustainable development goals.

When? The course will be launched on 8 February 2023

What to expect? After completing the course, you should be able to:

- Understand digital transformation in an organisational context.
- Understand how digital transformation can be related to sustainability and could accelerate the achievements of the Sustainable Development Goals.
- Locate and analyse appropriate scholarly and other resources regarding digital transformations.
- Understand the relation between an organisation's strategies and their impacts on selection, prioritisation and monitoring of a project.
- Consider and suggest how digital transformation for sustainable development could be implemented through projects.

Requirements: To enroll, you must be a PhD student.

You will receive a confirmation message with the necessary instructions once you have registered.

Pass-Fail Policy for Graduate Classes

Graduate students are not allowed to take classes P/F per Graduate School Policy, which states: "Graduate courses (400G-799) may not be taken Pass/ Fail."

For Graduating Master (Plan A & Plan B) and Specialist Students: Degree Audit

Conducting a degree audit is critically important during the semester you intend to graduate. Checking at the start of the semester gives you a view of the requirements you have satisfied and those that are remaining. If you discover a course that was wrongly assigned to a requirement, or not credited, you should bring this to the attention of your DGS (Director of Graduate Studies) or your program advisor. The program should contact the student affairs officer for the area/discipline well in advance of the final examination to resolve. If there are requirements that have not been met, then you and your program will need to decide if there are substitutions that will fulfill that requirement.

Request for Degree Certification Letter

There are 3 requirements that must be fulfilled to receive a degree certification letter:

- 1) Current Degree Application
- 2) The Final Examination card returned to GS and the exam is noted on the transcript
- 3) A final approved copy of the thesis or dissertation (where applicable)

Check Sheet for Master's Thesis \(Plan A\)

Check Sheet for Master's Non-Thesis \(Plan B\)

Notification of Intent to Schedule a Final Doctoral Examination (NOTIF)

There are times candidates change the possible defense date, which impacts the advisory committee, especially, the Outside Examiner (OE). If this occurs, the candidate should communicate with the Outside Examiner to insure the 'new' final examination date is viable. If the Outside Examiner can't participate due to the new exam date, then the candidate should re-submit the NOTIF which informs the Graduate School to begin the search for another faculty to serve as OE.

Doctoral Advisory Committee

When faculty members retire or leave the University, they may continue their service on previously established doctoral Advisory Committees but cannot be appointed to new committees. Requests to continue service should be made by the DGS to the Graduate School Dean (gsdean@uky.edu), and include the names of all students affected.
