Spring 2023 GradScholar: A Doctoral Re-Orientation (03/31)

"A good dissertation is a done dissertation, a great dissertation is a published dissertation, a perfect dissertation is neither."

Click Here for More Information & to Register

The UK Graduate School's Office of Graduate Student Professional Enhancement \(GSPE\) is excited to announce a brand new event for the Spring 2023 semester titled GradScholar: A Doctoral Re-Orientation. Intended for graduate students who have recently entered the candidacy stage of their doctoral degree, or those who are close to completing their qualifying/comprehensive exams, GradScholar will assist doctoral candidates in navigating the difficult transition from graduate student to independent scholar.

- Date/Time: Friday, March 31, 2023, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. EST
- Location: TBD
- Eligibility Requirement: Doctoral students who have completed, or will complete, their qualifying/comprehensive exam between May 2022 and May 2023.

Beyond the Professoriate March Webinar Series: Find YOUR Optimal Career

When: Every Wednesday in March from 12 p.m. - 12:30 p.m. ET

Where: Inside Beyond the Prof's PhD Career Training Platform.

Format: The virtual webinar will include instruction, reflective prompts and exercises, and opportunities for participants to ask questions directly to the Beyond Prof team.

Who should attend: This webinar series is designed for doctoral students, PhDs, and postdocs from all academic disciplines who are wondering:

- What career options are available to PhDs in my discipline?
- How do I identify career pathways that are right for me?
- What are my most marketable skills for careers outside of academia?
- What can I do with my PhD?

These webinars are free for Beyond Prof members to attend. That said, you will need to register ahead of time, which you can do here:

Replays will be emailed to registered attendees and available for 30 days. Please note that replays of each Wednesday's session will be available starting the next Friday at noon.

About your instructor: Dr. Harry Thomas earned his PhD from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and joined the Beyond Prof team in 2022 as a Learning Engagement Strategist. Previously, Dr. Thomas taught at Durham Academy where he also served as head of the department. Having navigated his own career transition from teaching into the private sector, Dr. Thomas is passionate about helping graduate students and PhDs explore career options and learn how to job search in today's creative economy.

Graduate School Reminders & Guidance

Online Form Submissions for Doctoral Students

A web-based process is used for submitting the following forms required for doctoral students:

- Advisory committee formation.
- Modifications to advisory committee composition.
- Request to schedule the Qualifying Examination.
- Notification of Intent to Schedule the Final Examination.
- Request for Final Examination.

Form submission is initiated by the student. Pressing the "Submit" button sends the form to the DGS for review. If changes are required, pressing the "Reject" button will send an e-mail to the student asking them to consult with the DGS. Pressing the "Submit" button forwards the form to the Graduate School for review. All subsequent correspondence from the Graduate School will then be via e-mail. Students can access the forms through a password-protected portal. Please contact the Assistant Dean for Graduate Academic Services with any questions regarding this process.

Call for Nominations for 2023 Sturgill Award & Kirwan Prize (02/24)

Click Here for More Information & to Submit Your Nominations

The Graduate School is seeking nominations for the 2023 Albert D. & Elizabeth H. Kirwan Memorial Prize and the 2023 William B. Sturgill Award, UK Graduate Education's two annual faculty awards. Nomination packages may be submitted any time by Friday, February 24, 2023. Please note that the Kirwan Prize now has an additional criterion (in red below) that should be addressed in the primary letter (and can be evinced in supporting letters).

The Kirwan Prize recognizes a faculty member for outstanding contributions to original research or scholarship within the last four years. The nomination must include a primary letter (1) describing the candidate's research and/or scholarly activities within the last four academic years, (2) arguing what/how those activities have contributed to the field or fields, and (3) describing the degree and scale of graduate student involvement in the pertinent research project(s). The recipient of the Kirwan Prize receives $5,000 and public recognition of the individual's research/scholarly attainment. Nomination guidelines and a list of previous recipients are available here.

The Sturgill Award recognizes a faculty member for outstanding contributions to graduate education at UK. The recipient of the Sturgill Award receives $2,000 and public recognition of the individual's service to graduate education and contributions to graduate student mentoring. Nomination guidelines and a list of previous recipients are available here.

UK Graduate School Accepting Nominations for Honorary Doctoral Degrees (03/09)

The University Joint Committee on Honorary Degrees (UJCHD) is currently seeking nomination packages for candidates of honorary doctoral degrees to be awarded at a future university commencement. The deadline to be considered for commencement ceremonies in December 2023 is Thursday, March 9.

Nominations may be made by faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of the University of Kentucky. The selection committee will follow the criteria, principles and guidelines approved by the University Senate and Board of Trustees.

The nomination package must include a primary letter of nomination, at least two letters of support and the nominee's bio (or resume or CV).

The titles and definitions of honorary degrees are listed below:

- Honorary Doctor of Arts — To recognize extraordinary accomplishments in the creative arts, fine arts, performing arts or related fields.
- Honorary Doctor of Laws — To recognize extraordinary accomplishments in law, politics, governance, diplomacy or related fields.
- Honorary Doctor of Science — To recognize extraordinary accomplishments in scientific fields.
- Honorary Doctor of Engineering — To recognize extraordinary accomplishments in engineering, design, technology or related fields.
- Honorary Doctor of Humanities — To recognize extraordinary accomplishments in the humanities.

- Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters — To recognize extraordinary contributions to philanthropy, human development, education or societal well-being.

An honorary doctorate pays tribute to those whose life and work exemplify professional, intellectual or artistic achievement by recognizing and appreciating those who have made significant contributions to society, the state and the University of Kentucky.

For complete criteria and directions on the nomination process, please visit The Graduate School's Honorary Doctoral Degrees webpage.

The list of previous honorary degrees awarded, dating back to 1886, can be viewed here.

If you have any questions, please contact Morris Grubbs, assistant dean of The Graduate School: morris.grubbs@uky.edu.

Anthropology Distinguished Lecture Series with Dr. Jonathan Berthard (02/23)

Anthropology Graduate Student Association presents
20th Annual Distinguished Lecturer Series

Community-Based Bioarchaeology: An Example from Transylvania

with Jonathan Bethard, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Biological Anthropology, University of South Florida

Thursday, February 23, 2023

4:30 pm - William T. Young Library

UK Athletics Association Auditorium

Free admission followed by a free catered reception

Dr. Jonathan Bethard (Ph.D.) is an associate professor of biological anthropology at the University of South Florida and a diplomate of the American Board of Forensic Anthropology. He is the project director of the ArchaeoTek Research Center and the head of the ArchaeoTek's Osteology laboratory.

Dr. Bethard's osteology and bioarchaeology field school in Odorheiu Secuiesc, Romania, has given students throughout the years the in-depth knowledge of human skeletal anatomy and dentition and skills to obtain demographic data from the archaeological skeletal populations essential to improving our understanding of life in the past. His lecture is based on his experience of conducting applied bioarchaeological work in Romania and working with the local community in maintaining their connection to their past, ancestors, and cultural heritage.

Thesis/Non-Thesis Options (Master's Degree)

The Graduate Faculty authorizes graduate programs to satisfy requirements for the master's degree by either of two options, thesis (Plan A) or non-thesis, (Plan B). Both options require a minimum of 30 credit hours.

The thesis option (Plan A) requires a minimum of 24 hours of course work plus a thesis, which is produced under the direction of a full or associate member of the Graduate Faculty. While working on the thesis, master's candidates should register for 6 credits of XXX-768 (Residence Credit for Master's Degree) in the appropriate department. After meeting coursework and 768 requirements, Plan A master's degree candidates who are in residence and receiving financial support from the University and/or utilizing University resources while working on the thesis must be enrolled in their departments XXX-768 or XXX-748 (Master's Thesis Research; 0 credit hours) each semester through to the defense. Registration in 748 guarantees that a student is in full-time status for the purposes of student financial aid and loan deferments. The DGS must certify that the student is working at least halftime (i.e., 20 hours per week) on the thesis. Registration in 748 is limited to a maximum of six semesters (not counting the summer semester).

The Graduate School processes all 748 registrations. The non-thesis option (Plan B) requires six or more graduate credit hours of course work in lieu of a thesis.

Beyond the Professoriate Quick Tips: Video Interviews

Given the now-widespread use of video conferencing, it's not unusual for job interviews to take place online these days, via Zoom or Teams or some other platform. On the academic job market, first-round interviews are increasingly done via video conferencing, and many non-academic jobs use the format as well.

So here are some tips for creating a good impression of yourself on a video interview:

- Elevate your webcam so that it's looking at you straight on (and not shooting you from underneath, an angle that looks flattering on exactly no one).
- Think about lighting! You want to be illuminated from the front and/or the side, not from behind (which will turn you into a shadow).
- Dress like yourself, but the most professional version of yourself (think about your favorite politician: they convey who they are while also navigating professional dress codes).

- And yes, dress the lower half of your body as well! Something unexpected might happen, causing you to need to stand, and no one needs to see your pajamas (no matter how comfortable they might be)! Plus, fully dressing the part will help you come off like you deserve the part.
- Double- and triple-check your tech. Do a test call with a friend or partner. Make sure you know how to use the particular video conferencing platform your interview will take place on, and make sure automatic updates on your computer are turned off.

Pass-Fail Policy for Graduate Classes

Graduate students are not allowed to take classes P/F per Graduate School Policy, which states: "Graduate courses (400G-799) may not be taken Pass/ Fail."

For Graduating Master (Plan A & Plan B) and Specialist Students: Degree Audit

Conducting a degree audit is critically important during the semester you intend to graduate. Checking at the start of the semester gives you a view of the requirements you have satisfied and those that are remaining. If you discover a course that was wrongly assigned to a requirement, or not credited, you should bring this to the attention of your DGS (Director of Graduate Studies) or your program advisor. The program should contact the student affairs officer for the area/discipline well in advance of the final examination to resolve. If there are requirements that have not been met, then you and your program will need to decide if there are substitutions that will fulfill that requirement.

Request for Degree Certification Letter

There are 3 requirements that must be fulfilled to receive a degree certification letter:

- 1) Current Degree Application
- 2) The Final Examination card returned to GS and the exam is noted on the transcript
- 3) A final approved copy of the thesis or dissertation (where applicable)

Check Sheet for Master's Thesis \(Plan A\)

Check Sheet for Master's Non-Thesis \(Plan B\)

Notification of Intent to Schedule a Final Doctoral Examination (NOTIF)

There are times candidates change the possible defense date, which impacts the advisory committee, especially, the Outside Examiner (OE). If this occurs, the candidate should communicate with the Outside Examiner to insure the 'new' final examination date is viable. If the Outside Examiner can't participate due to the new exam date, then the candidate should re-submit the NOTIF which informs the Graduate School to begin the

Doctoral Advisory Committee

When faculty members retire or leave the University, they may continue their service on previously established doctoral Advisory Committees but cannot be appointed to new committees. Requests to continue service should be made by the DGS to the Graduate School Dean (gsdean@uky.edu), and include the names of all students affected.

Income Tax Webinars for International Students

International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS) at UK is pleased to announce the following webinars for J-1 scholars and F-1/J-1 international students to learn more about filing a tax return for federal, state tax income or other tax filing forms (1040NR, 8843, W-7 etc.). Webinars will be hosted by our provider Sprintax. Sprintax is a tax preparation service used only for F and J visas who cannot use other tax services for U.S. residents. All F and J students and scholars must file a tax form 8843 even if you didn't work in 2022 but were physically present in 2022.

These tax webinars will provide general information and explain how to file your tax forms using a free tax discount code or embedded link. UK provides tax preparation software to help you file one federal for FREE. International students and scholars are responsible to pay for any additional forms such as state tax forms, ITIN or other tax related forms, if applicable. A discount will apply for J-2/F-2 dependents when filing the Form 8843 together as a family. For these additional services you may also choose to use the services of UK's Legal Tax Clinic offered through the law school which opens on February 21st.

Optional Practical Training Workshops for F-1 International Students

Are you an F-1 student looking for training or work experience towards your degree? You may want to consider Optional Practical Training (OPT). OPT allows you to receive 12 months of training towards your degree program before or after you graduate. OPT is a benefit granted to F-1 students who have been lawfully enrolled on a full-time basis for at least one academic year. If you are interested in applying or would like to find out more information about OPT, please join us for one of the workshops below:

- OPT Workshop #2 - Friday, 2/24/23 at 3:00 p.m. – Bradley Hall 207
- OPT Workshop #3 - Tuesday, 3/7/23 at 10:00 a.m. – Bradley Hall 207
- OPT Workshop #4 - Monday, 4/10/23 at 2:00 p.m. - Bradley Hall 207
- OPT Workshop #5 - Tuesday, 5/1/23 at 3:00 p.m. - Bradley Hall 207

CELT Workshop: Feedback for Learning (02/23)

Thursday, Feb. 23 @ 3:00-3:45 via Zoom

At the heart of the matter, learning requires instructors to provide feedback. Yet, instructors often struggle with figuring out when to give feedback, what types of feedback work best in different situations/settings, and how best to frame feedback so students are more likely to take action to improve their learning and/or the quality of their deliverable. In this Zoom session, we explore these areas with the dual purpose of leveraging the valuable time of instructors in ways that will likely lead to learning.
